Next Steps for States

- Review Compact Laws and Rules
 - Does your state/jurisdiction have fingerprint criminal background checks in place?
 - Have you established the amount your state will charge for a compact privilege fee?
 - Are rules required to be promulgated in your state?
 - Will your state require a jurisprudence examination?
 - Have you discussed the dataset submission requirements with your internal IT team?
- Reach out to the Executive Director to schedule an Onboarding Meeting (Administrative or Technical)
 - Will your state use API vs CSV? Is your state interested in a 2-way API?
 - Ensure that the appropriate state team members are involved in the technical meeting.
- Keep us updated with your progress and let us know if we can assist your state to launch.

State Legislative Update

37 jurisdictions have enacted the Compact

- 33: Legislation Enacted – Not Yet Issuing Privileges
- 4: Legislation Enacted – Issuing Privileges

2026 legislative activity

- 3 states currently have active Compact legislation
 - Michigan, New Jersey, Pennsylvania

State Legislative Update

Looking Ahead to 2027

- Continued advocacy is focused on expanding the Compact's national reach
- ASHA is working with state associations, policymakers, licensing boards, and partner organizations to support adoption
- State Focus
 - New Jersey & New York will be reintroduced, not expecting progress
 - Michigan & Pennsylvania will be reintroduced, hopeful for passage
 - Connecticut & Massachusetts, hopeful for bill introductions

Federal Legislative Update

- The States Handling Access to Reciprocity for Employment Act (H.R. 2332/S. 1101) adds a technical amendment to existing federal law to:
- Clearly authorize the FIB to conduct criminal background checks for state licensing agencies for the purpose of interstate licensure compacts, and
- To share the outcome of such background check

Federal Legislative Update

- H.R. 2332 passed the House Education & Workforce Committee unanimously, and is waiting to be acted on by the full House of Representatives (before it can move to the Senate)
- S. 1101 has 10 bipartisan cosponsors, and is waiting for action in committee or the full Senate
- The House is in recess until after the mid-term elections.
- Action may occur before the end of the year, or legislation will need to be reintroduced in 2027

2026 Annual Report
